

Commonwealth of Kentucky
Governor Ernie Fletcher's Communications Office

For Immediate Release
April 21, 2006

Contact: Brett Hall
Jodi Whitaker
Troy Body
502-564-2611

Lisa Wallace
502-564-6786

GOVERNOR FLETCHER TO HOST 2005 GOVERNOR'S VOLUNTEER AWARDS CEREMONY

FRANKFORT, Ky. – Governor Ernie Fletcher will host the 2005 Governor's Volunteer Awards ceremony at 7 p.m. Monday, April 24, 2006, in the Capitol Rotunda. The ceremony will be preceded by a light reception in the Capitol Mezzanine (second floor, Rotunda balcony).

A panel of judges with volunteer and community service backgrounds chose 18 winners – including adults, youths and groups from communities across the state – in 10 award categories.

WHO: Governor Ernie Fletcher

WHAT: 2005 Governor's Volunteer Awards ceremony

WHEN: 7 p.m. Monday, April 24, 2006

WHERE: Capitol Rotunda
700 Capital Avenue
Frankfort, Ky.

RECIPIENTS OF THE 2005 GOVERNOR'S VOLUNTEER AWARDS

Award Category	Winner's hometown/county
Lifetime Achievement (tie, dual winners)	Simpsonville/Shelby Co. and Lexington/Fayette Co.
Impact Youth	Pikeville/Pike Co.
Impact Adult	Cadiz/Trigg Co.
Innovation Youth	Nicholasville/Jessamine Co.
Innovation Adult	Ashland/Boyd Co.
Citizen's Corps Individual	Covington/Kenton Co.
Citizens' Corps Group	Philpot/Daviess Co.
Volunteer Support (business)	Louisville/Jefferson Co.
National Service Individual	Stearns/McCreary Co.
National Service Group	Christian, Hopkins, Muhlenberg and Trigg Counties
Non-Profit Group	Richmond/Madison Co.
Special Category: Individual	Owensboro/Daviess Co.
Special Category: Group	Oakland/Warren Co.
Director of Volunteer Service	Louisville/Jefferson Co.
Challenge Adult (tie, dual winners)	Lexington/Fayette Co. and Henderson/Henderson Co.
Challenge Youth	Williamsburg/Whitley Co.

###